Greetings,

April 2014

Welcome to the latest edition of the PARC Prisoner Resource Directory, which has been fully updated as of April 2014. We wish to thank those readers who have written back this past year with letters and stories and who have returned our evaluation form, as this allows us to get a better idea of the true readership of the directory and let us know which direction to take when adding new categories or information. Special thanks again to those who pass on the directory – according to your reports, our resource directory is widely circulated and viewed by an average of 15 or more people.

Starting with this edition we have reorganized many resources that were formerly listed in individual categories into a state-by-state listing. Thus for instance, the former entries for Innocence Projects, Prison-Based College Programs, and Family & Visiting Resources are now listed in the corresponding state in which the organization is based or primarily offers its services. Our other categories with listings affecting prisoners on a nationwide basis will continue with their own sections, such as Women's Organizations, Death Penalty Resources, and Religious Programs / Spiritual Resources.

PARC also has been closely following the ongoing federal lawsuit over cruel and unusual conditions in California's security housing units (Ashker v Brown, 4:09-cv-05796-CW), which was filed jointly by the nationally-recognized Center for Constitutional Rights, Oakland-based California Prison Focus, and San Francisco-based Legal Services for Prisoners with Children. The lawsuit is moving forward with the motion for class action certification now pending before the court. We will provide relevant updates and continuing case status through inserts placed in the Directory.

Many peaceful protests occurred throughout the country in 2013-2014 including Guantanamo, California, Virginia, Ohio, Texas, Washington (NW detention center), Georgia, Illinois, Alabama, and Oregon. The stated concerns were ending solitary confinement, edible food, sufficient medical care, and rehabilitation including education. Policies are starting to change, with Legislatures considering new legislation, especially for mentally ill prisoners and juveniles. Many articles and reports on solitary confinement and related prison issues have been published during the past year not only in progressive journals, but in the mainstream media as well.

As a result of the peaceful protests last summer in which over 30,000 prisoners participated, the California State Senate held hearings on October 9, 2013 and February 11, 2014 about the use of solitary confinement, with new legislation introduced to vastly curtail the use of solitary confinement. Additional information concerning citizen and activist involvement in the legislative process may be found at www.prisonerhungerstrikesolidarity.wordpress.com.

We hope the directory assists you with information and contacts you may need. One of our goals is to help get the voice of prisoners beyond the walls. Please send us information that can be publicized on our website.

WE ARE NOT A LAW OFFICE OR A LEGAL REFERRAL SERVICE. WE CAN NOT GIVE ANY 'REAL' LEGAL ADVICE.

We do not keep a database of the prisoners with whom we correspond. For any further correspondence, please label the outside of your envelope "Second Contact - No Packet Needed." We do our best to answer individual requests. When issues are important, answering mail sometimes takes longer based on the nature of the request and the number of volunteers we have available. We thank you for your patience. Stamps and monetary support are always needed and welcomed. To those on the outside, feel free to copy and distribute this directory. If you are in our area please call us or visit. There's always work to do!

NATIONWIDE ORGANIZATIONS AND RESOURCES

ACLU National Prison Project

915 15th Street NW, 7th Floor • Washington, DC 20005
202-393-4930 www.aclu.org/prisoners-rights

The American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) National Prison Project (NPP) handles class action lawsuits to ensure that conditions of confinement in prisons, jails, and other places of detention are constitutional and consistent with health, safety, and human dignity. The NPP does not handle cases on behalf of individual prisoners and does not assist individual prisoners with their criminal cases or post-conviction matters. Litigation is usually limited to cases involving major class actions challenging prison conditions or related matters. Do not send any original documents.

List of NPP Resources:

Prisoners' Assistance Directory (2012 - 87 pgs.) Directory of national and state-based organizations that assist prisoners and their families in various capacities. (Please note this directory is 87 pages; thus if requested via mail the NPP may send sections applicable only to an individual's specific issue or state of incarceration; as for instance there would be no need to send a list of organizations in AL for someone in CA.)

Know Your Rights: Medical, Dental and Mental Health Care (2012 - 12 pgs.) Prison officials are obligated under the Eighth Amendment to provide prisoners with adequate medical care. This principle applies regardless of whether the medical care is provided by governmental employees or by private medical staff under contract with the government. Know Your Rights: Freedom of Religion (2012 - 6 pgs.) Generally, beliefs that are "sincerely held" and "religious" are protected by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.

Know Your Rights: Publications Sent by Mail (2012 - 6 pgs.) Restrictions on prisoners' access to publications cannot be arbitrary; they must be "reasonably related to legitimate penological interests." That said, in practice, courts often will accept the judgment of prison authorities in deciding whether censoring a publication is reasonable.

Know Your Rights: Environmental Hazards and Toxic Materials (2011 - 5 pgs.) Exposing prisoners to dangerous conditions or toxic substances may violate the Eighth Amendment of the Constitution, which prohibits cruel and unusual punishment. Prison officials violate the Eighth Amendment if, with deliberate indifference, they expose a prisoner to a condition that poses an unreasonable risk of serious damage to that prisoner's health.

Know Your Rights: Legal Rights of Disabled Prisoners (2012 - 7 pgs.) Statutes exist under both the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act to protect the rights of prisoners with disabilities.

Know Your Rights: The Prison Litigation Reform Act (2011 - 6 pgs.) The Prison Litigation Reform Act makes it harder for prisoners to file lawsuits in federal court. This fact sheet outlines the information you need to know before filing a lawsuit.

Know Your Rights: Privileged and Non-Privileged Mail (2011 - 12 pgs.) The Supreme Court has held that the First Amendment of the United States Constitution entitles prisoners to receive and send mail, subject only to the institution's right to censor letters or withhold delivery if necessary to protect institutional security, and if accompanied by appropriate procedural safeguards.

Write to request printed copies of the above publications, or have family or friends download any of the above publications and mail the pages in to you. (Please note that wait times for printed publications via mail request may be very long due to the volume of prisoner mail.)

All of Us or None

c/o Legal Services for Prisoners with Children
1540 Market Street #490 • San Francisco, CA 94102
415-255-7036 ext. 337 www.allofusornone.org

All of Us or None is a national organizing initiative of prisoners and former prisoners to combat the many forms of discrimination that prisoners face upon release. They do not answer letters from prisoners, but rather are active in several local and national campaigns, including BAN THE BOX, a movement to end job discrimination based on felony convictions.

Have you ever been in juvenile hall, jail, prison, or INS detention? Are you currently on probation or parole? Are you having a hard time starting over or finding a job since your release from prison? Have you or someone you know been denied housing or welfare due to a felony conviction? Would you like to know more about your right to vote with a felony conviction? Have you been denied custody of your children because of your felony conviction? Has your juvenile record been used against you? All of Us or None is working towards solutions to these problems.

Centurion Ministries, Inc.

221 Witherspoon Street • Princeton, NJ 08542-3215

609-921-0334 www.centurionministries.org

Centurion Ministries is an advocacy and investigative organization that considers cases of factual innocence primarily in murder and rape cases carrying Life or Death sentences, but other cases of factual innocence may be considered. We do not take on accidental death, self-defense cases, or cases where the defendant had any involvement whatsoever in the crime for which he/she was convicted. Prisoners fitting the above criteria may send us a letter (four pages or less) outlining the facts of the case, with a summary including the following points: what you were convicted of; brief description of the crime; why were you arrested and taken to trial; what evidence was used to convict you; and what evidence there is that points toward your innocence. DO NOT SEND ANY OTHER MATERIALS. We also publish a newsletter every six months; write to be placed on our mailing list.

Center on Wrongful Convictions - Women's Project
Northwestern University School of Law
357 East Chicago Avenue • Chicago, IL 60611-3069
312-503-2391 www.law.northwestern.edu/wrongfulconvictions/women
When women, traditionally viewed as nurturers and protectors, are accused of murdering or sexually abusing children, they are particularly reviled by society, including of course, by police, prosecutors, judges, jurors, and witnesses. In cases in which no crime has occurred—such as those arising from accidental or natural deaths that are mistaken for homicides—convictions are likely to ensue. Because the evidence in such cases is often entirely circumstantial, identifying wrongful convictions is difficult and rectifying them is complicated. The Women's Project of the Center on Wrongful Convictions focuses both on litigation aimed at exonerating women in prison for crimes they did not commit and on public education aimed at raising awareness of the factors that lead to their convictions.

Chicago Books to Women in Prison
4511 N. Hermitage Ave • Chicago, IL 60640
www.chicagoobwp.org
Chicago Books to Women in Prison is an all-volunteer collective that mails paperback books to people who are incarcerated in women's prisons in AZ, CA, CT, FL, IL, IN, KY, MO, & OH. CBWP is dedicated to offering women behind bars the opportunity for self-empowerment, education, and entertainment that reading provides. Incarcerated women send their requests for books directly to CBWP, which then gathers on Sunday afternoons to fill the requests.

Federal Receiver - J. Clark Kelso
California Prison Receivership
PO Box 588500 • Elk Grove, CA 95758
916-691-3000 www.cphcs.ca.gov
In 2002, California settled a class-action lawsuit by agreeing to reform their medical care system, and the federal court appointed a federal Receiver to oversee the reform process. The receiver's job is to bring the level of medical care in California prisons to a standard which no longer violates the U.S. Constitution. Prisoner patients under the control of the CDCR and their families may write to the above address with concerns about health care issues (except for mental health, dental, or substance abuse and treatment). Some patient-care issues brought to the Receiver's attention may prompt clinical investigation and action. All information provided to the Receiver is considered in implementing systemic improvements.

Prison education is a concept whose time has come. Education Behind Bars is both a reference guide and a social policy title. Half of the book is dedicated to the need for prison education, its history, travails, current situation, and the refutation of arguments against it. The other half of the book is directed toward the incarcerated student with an up-to-date listing of numerous educational opportunities. Education Behind Bars is the most comprehensive study of prison education on the market to date. One can read Education Behind Bars from cover to cover, or read only the second half which contains detailed descriptions of hundreds of available educational programs.

Jailhouse Lawyers Handbook, 5th edition, 2010, 152 pages, $2.00
The National Lawyers Guild • 132 Nassau Street, Room 922 • New York, NY 10038
212-679-6018 Fax: 212-679-2811 www.nlg.org/jailhouse-lawyers-handbook

The Jailhouse Lawyers Handbook, published jointly by the National Lawyers Guild and the Center for Constitutional Rights, explains how a prisoner can start a lawsuit in federal court to fight against mistreatment and bad conditions in prison. Because most prisoners are in state prisons, the authors focus on those. However, people in federal prisons and city or county jails will be able to use the Handbook also. To receive a paperbound copy, mail $2.00 in money order, check, or stamps to the above address. Please note that the Handbook is also available for free if downloaded from either of the below-listed websites by an outside source, printed out, and mailed in to the prisoner. List of chapter headings: (1) Introduction; (2) Your Legal Options; (3) Your Rights in Prison; (4) Structuring Your Lawsuit; (5) How to Start Your Lawsuit; (6) Legal System & Research; (7) The Legal System and Legal Research; and 12 appendices. <http://jailhouselaw.org> or http://ccrjustice.org/files/Report_JailHouseLawyersHandbook.pdf.

The Habeas Citebook: Ineffective Assistance of Counsel, by Brandon Sample, 220 pages, 2010, $49.95 (+ $6 shipping/handling)
Prison Legal News • PO Box 1151 • Lake Worth, FL 33460 561-360-2523 www.prisonlegalnews.orghttps://www.prisonlegalnews.org/129_ProductDetails.aspx
The Habeas Citebook is a much-needed tool for prisoners who are forced to seek relief on their own. The book is thorough, but simple and readable. It starts with a well-organized listing of hundreds of different types of ineffective assistance of counsel, set forth in the form of citations to court rulings - a novel approach that not only acts as a springboard for further research but also saves the prisoner countless hours of preliminary research. The book is also practical and useful. It provides invaluable resources, including templates and forms, that explain what, when, where and how to file for habeas relief. It contains readable summaries of the relevant laws and rules and plain-English explanations of some of the inherently mystifying concepts of habeas law, such as "procedural default" and "certificates of appealability" and the "AEDPA." It includes practical advice on what to do and what not to do on issues such as identifying and selecting the claims to be argued; seeking discovery and evidentiary hearings; and seeking the appointment of counsel. And the book consistently offers critical insights on winning court strategies. Shipping/handling for book orders from Prison Legal News is $6 total for any orders under $49.90, and free for all orders over $49.90. Mail request and check or money order payable to "Prison Legal News."

Inmate Shopper by George Kayer, 2014 (published every March, July and November) 240 pages, $17.99 (+ $7 for USPS Priority Mail)
Inmate Shopper • PO Box 231 • Edna, TX 77957 <http://www.inmateshopper.com/> (Also available for purchase at Amazon.com)
Inmate Shopper is a shopping guide and services directory for inmates and was created by a prisoner, George Kayer, who has researched the over 300 businesses listed in the guide for more than the past six years. Inmate Shopper informs its readers about established and newer companies and offers information on pen pal services, scams, opportunities, contests, and places to sell their writing, arts, and crafts. Inmate Shopper also lists pen pal websites, personal assistants, gift boutiques, businesses that want to send prisoners their catalog and nearly 100 contests for prison writers, poets and artists. Order online, or send a check or money order for $17.99 + $7.00 (priority shipping) to the above address.

Prisoners' Self Help Litigation Manual by John Boston & Dan Manville, 4th edition, 2010, 960 pages, $39.95 (+ $6 shipping/handling)
Prison Legal News • PO Box 1151 • Lake Worth, FL 33460 561-360-2523 www.prisonlegalnews.orghttps://www.prisonlegalnews.org/128_ProductDetails.aspx
The 4th edition of the Prisoners' Self-Help Litigation Manual is an indispensable guide for prisoners and prisoner advocates seeking to understand the rights guaranteed to prisoners by law and how to protect those rights. Clear, comprehensive, practical advice provides prisoners with everything they need to know on conditions of confinement, civil liberties in prison, procedural due process, the legal system, how to litigate, conducting effective legal research, and writing legal documents. Written by two legal and penitentiary experts with intimate knowledge of prisoner's rights and legal aid work, authors John Boston and Daniel E. Manville strategically focus on federal constitutional law, providing prisoners and those wishing to assist them with the most important information concerning legal rights. Shipping/handling for book orders from Prison Legal News is $6 total for any orders under $49.90, and free for all orders over $49.90. Mail request and check or money order payable to "Prison Legal News."

Protecting Your Health and Safety: A Litigation Guide For Inmates by Robert E. Toone, 2nd Edition, 2009, 325 pages, $10 (+ $6 shipping/handling)
Prison Legal News • PO Box 1151 • Lake Worth, FL 33460 561-360-2523 www.prisonlegalnews.orghttps://www.prisonlegalnews.org/112_ProductDetails.aspx
Protecting Your Health & Safety is an easy to read, plain language guide prisoners can use to identify and litigate federal civil rights claims against prison officials. Over 100 pages are dedicated to the different kinds of constitutional and statutory violations prisoners frequently encounter while incarcerated.

Topics discussed include the First to Fourteenth Amendments, the Religious Freedom Restoration Act, the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the Rehabilitation Act. Each issue, whether it may be First Amendment retaliation or a violation of the Equal Protection Clause, is addressed in laymen's terms and supported by case citations from federal district courts, federal courts of appeal, and the United States Supreme Court. Difficult concepts like deliberate indifference are simplified in just seven pages, giving you what you need to know to make out a cognizable Eighth Amendment claim. Another 130 pages discuss how to write a complaint, seek in forma pauperis status, ask for appointment of counsel, respond to motions to dismiss and motions for summary judgment, conduct discovery, and even present your case at trial. Even procedural issues such as exhaustion of administrative remedies are addressed, helping to avoid dismissal at the pleading stage. A glossary of commonly used legal terms is also included, along with a directory of addresses where to file a federal civil rights suit in each judicial district. Shipping/handling for book orders is $6 total for any orders under $49.90, and free for all orders over $49.90. Mail request and check or money order payable to "Prison Legal News."

Prisoner Self-Help Manual to Challenge Gang Validation, 5th edition, 2011, $15 for prisoners, $22 for all others

California Prison Focus • 1904 Franklin Street, Suite 507 • Oakland, CA 94612 510-836-7222 www.prisons.org

This manual is for prisoners who have been validated by CDCR as a gang member or associate, but have no real links or gang activity. Prisoners and advocates say that in addition to making "false validations," the CDCR keeps some prisoners in solitary indefinitely based on gang validations that are a decade or more old (despite a federal court decision that was supposed to end such practices). Send check, money order, or stamps. Free shipping and handling.

STANDARD MINIMUM RULES FOR THE TREATMENT OF PRISONERS

Approved: United Nations Congress on the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders, held at Geneva in 1955, and approved by the Economic and Social Council by resolutions 663 C (XXIV) of 31 July 1957 and 2076 (LXII) of 13 May 1977.

Accommodations

- Cells for individuals should not be used to accommodate two or more persons overnight; dormitory facilities are to be supervised at night.

Exercise and Sport

- If not employed in outdoor work, every prisoner shall have at least one hour of exercise in the open air, weather permitting.
- Young prisoners and others of suitable age and physique are to receive physical and recreational training.

Medical Services

- Pre-natal and post-natal care and treatment are to be provided by women's institutions; where nursing infants are allowed to remain with their mothers, a nursery staffed by qualified persons is needed.
- The medical officer shall see all sick prisoners daily, along with those who complain of illness or are referred to his/her attention.
- The medical officer is to report to the director on prisoners whose health is jeopardized by continued imprisonment and on the quality of the food, hygiene, bedding, clothing, and physical regimen of the prisoners.

Discipline and Punishment

- Cruel, inhuman, and/or degrading punishments, including corporal punishment and restriction to a dark cell, shall be prohibited.

Instruments of Restraint

- Handcuffs, straitjackets, and other instruments of restraint are never to be applied as a punishment, and irons and chains are not to be used as means of restraint.

Information to and Complaints by Prisoners

- Upon admission, prisoners shall be informed of the regulations they are to live by and of authorized channels for seeking information and making complaints.
- Prisoners are to have the right to make complaints to the director of the institution, as well as to the central prison administration and the judicial authority, in the proper form but without censorship as to substance, and they are to have the opportunity to speak directly to an inspector of prisons outside the presence of institutional staff members.
- Unless evidently frivolous, each complaint shall be replied to promptly.

Contacts with the Outside World

- Prisoners are to be allowed regular contact with family and friends, by both correspondence and personal visits.
- Prisoners who are foreign nationals shall be allowed communication with diplomatic and consular representatives of their State, or a State or international authority that has taken charge of their interests.
- Prisoners are to be kept informed of current events and important items of news.

Books

- Every institution shall maintain for the use of prisoners a library with recreational and instructional books.

Guiding Principles

- The prison system must not aggravate unnecessarily the suffering inherent in a prisoner's loss of self-determination and liberty.
- Prisons should utilize all remedial, educational, medical, and spiritual forms of assistance to treat the prisoner's needs and facilitate his return to society as a law-abiding member.
- Government or private agencies should be available for the after care of released prisoners

Treatment

- Treatment of prisoners under sentence shall be directed to achieve the capacity for law-abiding and self-supporting lives, utilizing professional services whenever possible.

Education and Recreation

- The ongoing education of prisoners is to be facilitated, and schooling of illiterates and youthful prisoners is to be considered compulsory.
- Recreational and cultural activities are to be made available.
