Prisoner Resource Directory

Greetings,

October 2016

Welcome to the Fall 2016 edition of the PARC Prisoner Resource Directory. In response to your letters and suggestions, we have added a re-entry resources section, a prison writing and art section, and have updated the addresses for many of our listings. Thanks to the thousands of readers who have written letters of support and encouragement, and to those who return our evaluation form enabling us to get a better idea of the true readership of the directory and let us know which direction to take when adding new categories or information. Special thanks to those who pass on the directory to others—our resource directory is widely circulated in jails and prisons with each copy viewed by an average of 15 or more persons.

Several of the organizations listed in this directory no longer respond to individual prisoner letters, but are still listed for informational purposes or have resources that friends or family may download through the Internet and mail into the prisoner (e.g., the National Prison Project, as detailed on page 2). These groups are noted in the directory.

This past year has seen many successes for prisoners' rights. The death penalty is losing support nationwide. In the last year, Nebraska abolished its use, and four states have stopped killings indefinitely under governors' orders. The movement for voting rights for convicted individuals is gaining steam; most recently, the Governor of Virginia restored voting rights to people once they have completed their term of incarceration and parole.

Officials across the country have announced "reforms" to the use of solitary confinement, including from the Federal Bureau of Prisons, Colorado, Maine, Mississippi, Wisconsin, and several other states. New York and California each settled class action lawsuits challenging the use of long term solitary confinement, Peoples v. Fischer (11 CIV 2964 SAS) and Ashker v. Governor of California (4:09-cv-05796 CW). California is now in the process of a two-year monitoring period by order of the court, with expert witness findings used to press the state to establish real education and programming. From Sept. 2015 to Sept. 2016, 1,226 prisoners were moved out of Pelican Bay SHU, with only 419 remaining. And according to the CDCr, there are now over a thousand empty SHU beds statewide! But we still have a long way to go, with the retraining of guards remaining a high priority.

As an all-volunteer organization we do our best to respond to individual letters, but our current focus is on maintaining and distributing the directory free to all who request a copy. We do not keep a database of the prisoners with whom we correspond. We do not list pen pal resources, as those are available through other sources or groups listed in the directory. We graciously accept your support and enthusiasm. To those on the outside, feel free to copy and distribute this directory. We hope the directory assists you with information and contacts you may need.

WE ARE NOT A LAW OFFICE OR A LEGAL REFERRAL SERVICE.
WE CAN NOT GIVE LEGAL ADVICE.

PARC Prisoner Resource Directory - October 2016

334-269-1803 · www.eji.org/deathpenalty/innocence

The Equal Justice Initiative provides legal representation to indigent defendants and prisoners who have been denied fair and just treatment in the legal system. They litigate on behalf of condemned prisoners, juvenile offenders, people wrongly convicted or charged with violent crimes, poor people denied effective representation, and others whose trials are marked by racial bias or prosecutorial misconduct.

The Exoneration Project

311 N. Aberdeen St., Suite 2E
Chicago, IL 60607

312-789-4955 · www.exonerationproject.org

The EP reviews cases of innocence for people who have gone to trial and were found guilty of crimes they did not commit. They consider post-conviction cases from across the nation for individuals wrongfully convicted of different types of crimes and with different sentence lengths, including cases where a defendant has served their complete sentence or plead guilty. They do not consider cases of self-defense. In order to apply for representation, the defendant must be innocent of the crime, the trial must be completed and have resulted in a conviction, and the case must be within the United States.

Prison Education Guide

Prison Legal News · PO Box 1151 · Lake Worth, FL 33460 · 561-360-2523 · www.prisonlegalnews.org/store/products/prison-education-guide
Prison Education Guide (Christopher Zoukis, 2016, 280 pages, $49.95 + $6 S&H) is the most comprehensive guide to correspondence programs for prisoners available today. This exceptional book provides the reader with step-by-step instructions to find the right educational program, enroll in courses and complete classes to meet their academic goals. It is perfect for the incarcerated student who lacks Internet access or the ability to attend education classes in person. Prison Education Guide includes a detailed analysis of the quality, cost, and course offerings of all college correspondence programs available to prisoners. In a time when so many academic opportunities in prisons have been eliminated, this book is an invaluable reentry tool for prisoners who seek to further their education while incarcerated, and to help them prepare for life and work following their release.

Prisoners' Self Help Litigation Manual

Prison Legal News · PO Box 1151 · Lake Worth, FL 33460 · 561-360-2523
www.prisonlegalnews.org/store/products/prisoners-self-help-litigation-manual-4th-edition
The Prisoners' Self-Help Litigation Manual (John Boston & Dan Manville, 4th Ed, 2010, 960 pages, $39.95 + $6 S&H) is an indispensable guide for prisoners and prisoner advocates seeking to understand the rights guaranteed to prisoners by law and how to protect those rights. Clear, comprehensive, practical advice provides prisoners with everything they need to know on conditions of confinement, civil liberties in prison, procedural due process, the legal system, how to litigate, conducting effective legal research, and writing legal documents. Written by two legal and penitentiary experts with intimate knowledge of prisoner's rights and legal aid work, authors John Boston and Daniel E. Manville strategically focus on federal constitutional law, providing prisoners and those wishing to assist them with the most important information concerning legal rights.

Protecting Your Health and Safety: A Litigation Guide For Inmates

Prison Legal News · PO Box 1151 · Lake Worth, FL 33460 · 561-360-2523
www.prisonlegalnews.org/store/products/protecting-your-health-and-safety-a-litigation-guide-for-inmates
Protecting Your Health & Safety (Robert E. Toone, 2nd Ed, 2009, 325 pages, $10 + $6 S&H) is an easy to read, plain language guide prisoners can use to identify and litigate federal civil rights claims against prison officials. Over 100 pages are dedicated to the different kinds of constitutional and statutory violations prisoners frequently encounter while incarcerated. Topics discussed include the First to Fourteenth Amendments, the Religious Freedom Restoration Act, the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the Rehabilitation Act. Each issue, whether it may be First Amendment retaliation or a violation of the Equal Protection Clause, is addressed in laymen's terms and supported by case citations from federal district courts, federal courts of appeal, and the United States Supreme Court. Difficult concepts like deliberate indifference are simplified in just seven pages, giving you what you need to know to make out a cognizable Eighth Amendment claim. Another 130 pages discuss how to write a complaint, seek in forma pauperis status, ask for appointment of counsel, respond to motions to dismiss and motions for summary judgment, conduct discovery, and even present your case at trial. Even procedural issues such as exhaustion of administrative remedies are addressed, helping to avoid dismissal at the pleading stage. A glossary of commonly used legal terms is also included, along with a directory of addresses where to file a federal civil rights suit in each judicial district.

The Disciplinary Self-Help Litigation Manual

Prison Legal News · PO Box 1151 · Lake Worth, FL 33460 · 561-360-2523
www.prisonlegalnews.org/store/products/disciplinary-self-help-litigation-manual
The Disciplinary Self-Help Litigation Manual (Dan Manville, 2nd Ed, 2015, 368 pages, $49.95 + $6 S&H) is designed to inform prisoners of their rights when faced with the consequences of a disciplinary hearing. This authoritative and comprehensive work educates prisoners about their rights throughout this process and helps guide them at all stages, from administrative hearing through litigation. This invaluable how-to guide offers step by step information for both state and federal prisoners and includes a 50 state analysis of relevant case law.

The Habeas Citebook: Ineffective Assistance of Counsel

Prison Legal News · PO Box 1151 · Lake Worth, FL 33460 · 561-360-2523
www.prisonlegalnews.org/store/products/the-habeas-citebook-ineffective-assistance-of-counsel
The Habeas Citebook (Brandon Sample, 2010, 220 pages, $49.95 + $6 S&H) is a much-needed tool for prisoners who are forced to seek relief on their own. The book is thorough, but simple and readable. It starts with a well-organized listing of hundreds of different types of ineffective assistance of counsel, set forth in the form of citations to court rulings - a novel approach that not only acts as a springboard for further research but also saves the prisoner countless hours of preliminary research. The book is also practical and useful. It provides invaluable resources, including templates and forms, that explain what, when, where and how to file for habeas relief. It contains readable summaries of the relevant laws and rules and Plain-English explanations of some of the inherently mystifying concepts of habeas law, such as "procedural default" and "certificates of appealability" and the "AEDPA." It includes practical advice on what to do and what not to do on issues such as identifying and selecting the claims to be argued; seeking discovery and evidentiary hearings; and seeking the appointment of counsel. In addition, the book consistently offers critical insights on winning court strategies.

STANDARD MINIMUM RULES FOR THE TREATMENT OF PRISONERS (EXCERPTS)

United Nations Congress on the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders, held at Geneva 1955, approved 1957. Revised and reapproved on May 22, 2015 as 122 individual rules, now known as the "Mandela Rules." (Full set of the 122 Mandela Rules is 36 pages, available for download at: www.penalreform.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/05/MANDELA-RULES.pdf. According to our readers, the UN will not send free printed copies.)

Accommodations

- Cells for individuals should not be used to accommodate two or more persons overnight; dormitory facilities are to be supervised at night.

Exercise and Sport

- If not employed in outdoor work, every prisoner shall have at least one hour of exercise in the open air, weather permitting.
- Young prisoners and others of suitable age and physique are to receive physical and recreational training.

Medical Services

- Pre-natal and post-natal care and treatment are to be provided by women's institutions; where nursing infants are allowed to remain with their mothers, a nursery staffed by qualified persons is needed.
- The medical officer shall see all sick prisoners daily, along with those who complain of illness or are referred to his/her attention.
- The medical officer is to report to the director on prisoners whose health is jeopardized by continued imprisonment and on the quality of the food, hygiene, bedding, clothing, and physical regimen of the prisoners.

Discipline and Punishment

- Cruel, inhuman, and/or degrading punishments, including corporal punishment and restriction to a dark cell, shall be prohibited.

Instruments of Restraint

- Handcuffs, straitjackets, and other instruments of restraint are never to be applied as a punishment, and irons and chains are not to be used as means of restraint.

Information to and Complaints by Prisoners

- Upon admission, prisoners shall be informed of the regulations they are to live by and of authorized channels for seeking information and making complaints.
- Prisoners are to have the right to make complaints to the director of the institution, as well as to the central prison administration and the judicial authority, in the proper form but without censorship as to substance, and they are to have the opportunity to speak directly to an inspector of prisons outside the presence of institutional staff members.
- Unless evidently frivolous, each complaint shall be replied to promptly.

Contacts with the Outside World

- Prisoners are to be allowed regular contact with family and friends, by both correspondence and personal visits.
- Prisoners who are foreign nationals shall be allowed communication with diplomatic and consular representatives of their State, or a State or international authority that has taken charge of their interests.
- Prisoners are to be kept informed of current events and important items of news.

Books

- Every institution shall maintain for the use of prisoners a library with recreational and instructional books.

Guiding Principles

- The prison system must not aggravate unnecessarily the suffering inherent in a prisoner's loss of self-determination and liberty.
- Prisons should utilize all remedial, educational, medical, and spiritual forms of assistance to treat the prisoner's needs and facilitate his return to society as a law-abiding member.
- Government or private agencies should be available for the after care of released prisoners

Treatment

- Treatment of prisoners under sentence shall be directed to achieve the capacity for law-abiding and self-supporting lives, utilizing professional services whenever possible.

Education and Recreation

- The ongoing education of prisoners is to be facilitated, and schooling of illiterates and youthful prisoners is to be considered compulsory.
- Recreational and cultural activities are to be made available.
